CLERK: 25 ayes, no nays.

PRESIDENT: The Barnett amendment is adopted. Senator Lewis, do you want to go on? Motion to advance the bill. No further discussion? Please vote. All those in favor signify by saying aye. Opposed? Okay.

CLERK: Mr. President, a letter from the Secretary of State acknowledging receipt of LB 423 together with the Certificate signed by the President of the Legislature certifying that LB 423 has been overridden, or that the Governor's objections have been overridden. Mr. President, Legislative Resolution 96 introduced by Senators Bereuter, Marsh, Stull, Marvel and Simpson relative to a interim study committee which will be referred to the Executive Board. Mr. President your Committee on Enrollment and Review reports that we examined and reviewed LB 74 and same correctly reengrossed. LB 142 correctly engrossed, 380 correctly engrossed and 557 correctly engrossed. Signed Senator Dworak, Chairman. Senator Swigart and Senator Syas asked to be excused for the balance of the day. Mr. President, LB 577.

PRESIDENT: Senator Burbach.

SENATOR BURBACH: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I think it's extremely important that we do take 577. But, I think we've got something to resolve here by this body and I would be hopeful that I would have the attention of every member of this body. I would be hopeful.....

PRESIDENT: Could we have the attention of the Legislature for the words of the Speaker?

SENATOR BURBACH: And I would be hopeful we would not need a Call of the House but I wish all of the members of this body would listen very very closely because if effects every one of us. This is, this morning we discussed at some lengths, but no determination was made of how long, what we wish to do, what we do not wish to do in 89 days or 90 days. Since that time of this morning, it was brought up a little prematurely because I told you that I had visited with our bill drafting department, Mr. Emery Barnett in particular, and these are the options that I explained at that time; a 90 day session would probably be Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, of this week, return Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Well, since that time and I don't want to confuse anyone by talking about certain days or dates, but a suggestion was made that we return Tuesday and Wednesday of next week and then determine whether we had to come back the following week. I suggested to those people who made that suggestion to me on Tuesday, many of the members of this body who live a long ways from here will probably be giving a Memorial Address on Monday morning or Monday noon, or Monday afternoon. It would be impossible for them to give an address at some cemetery and return and be here for Tuesday. So, I think
